

Steve Dolman joined Hines in 1991. He is a vice president of Hines and a member of the Hines Capital Markets Group. He is responsible for the HCM I/HCM II fund investments in Mexico and the HCB I/HCB II fund investments in South America. Dolman held asset management and project management responsibilities in the Midwest and Southeast regions from 1991-1997. In 1998 he moved to Brazil to establish Hines' South America region and manage the development of office and industrial projects. During his tenure at Hines, Dolman has contributed to the development, leasing and management of more than 7.5 million square feet of office and industrial projects valued at over US$ 1 billion.

Hines has created projects of the highest quality, aesthetic relevance and enduring value for its investor partners, clients and local communities. Working with such notable architects as Cesar Pelli, Frank Gehry, I.M. Pei and Philip Johnson, Hines has redefined the way developers interact with and treat architecture, promoting a balance between function, beauty and sustainability and reshaping skylines around the world.

Dolman graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a B.B.A., received his M.A. and M.B.A. from the University of Southern California and his Master of International Management from Thunderbird. He currently resides in Houston, TX.
